By WILLIAM PEET.
"Dolly" Gray came back into his own again yesterday, and, with the Detroit champions as his opponents, twirled the Nationals to victory, 3 to 2, in one of the best games played here this season.

There was action every minute—spectacular catches, brilliant fielding stunts, and snappy base running. The home team won because they were able to smash the ball safe when hits mean runs, and, with the exception of the fourth inning, Gray kept the bat music down to soft pedal.

Time after time the Tigers got men on bases, even as far as third, when a safe rap would have turned the tide; but Gray was master of the situation at all stages. Cobb was the only visiting lefthander who took any liberties with Gray's twisters, and both of his hits were up fly grounds, which our infielders were able to knock down, but unable to field.

Brilliant Fielding Stunts.
Milan and Lovell were the stars in the field, the former executed one of the most spectacular plays ever seen on the District ball yard in the sixth inning, when, with Killifer on first, he pulled down Moriarty's fly almost to the foul line after a hard run and slammed the ball like a shot to Donohue, completing a double play as Killifer ventured too far off from first, believing the hit was good for a single.

Short Stop Bush, of the Tigers, put up his usually snappy game and went after every thing that came his way. Detroit was easily blanked in the first inning, but the Nationals aided by weird work on the part of left fielder Jones, were able to score one run. Donohue opened the chapter by popping up a foul fly to Beckendorf. Milan singled to left, and as Jones fumbled, made a dash for second. Jones slammed the ball a mile over the heads of his infield almost to the grand stand and Milan reached third before the ball could be recovered. Unglaub's sacrifice fly to Killifer scored Milan. Delehanty died, Bush to Crawford.

Two Runs for Detroit.
It looked bad for Cantillon's tribe in the fourth, when the visitors collected two runs. Killifer singled to left and got around to third as three of our fielders let Moriarty's fly drop between them.

O'Leary hit a stunner to Conroy, who made a beautiful stop, but in trying to hold Killifer on third ended up with a poor throw to Donohue, and everybody was safe. Beckendorf was up with the bases full and nobody out, and the fans were in misery. Detroit then scored its third run, when Beckendorf hit into a double play. McBride had no chance to get Killifer at home. Killian, with two strikes, looked easy picking. He was not. A pretty single between McBride and Conroy scored Moriarty. Bush made it three out on a grounder to Donohue.

In the second half of this inning, the Nationals won the game. Delehanty started the fireworks with a clean single past Bush. Lovell's grounder to Killian forced Del at second. Conroy was presented with a base on balls, and George McBride produced the hit that brought home the bacon, a slashing two bagger just inside the left field line. Lovell then crossed the plate, Conroy scoring on a sacrifice. Crawford, nipping Mike by a few inches, Gray closed the inning by striking out.

Bases Full in Seventh.
The Nationals had just one other good chance to swell the run total—in the seventh, when the bases were loaded and two gone. Delehanty could not get the ball out of the infield and forced Milan at the midway gap.

Two of the best players on the Nationals were out of the game, and Mike Kahoe, who has only been behind the bat but once this season, had to catch Gray, as Blankenship is nursing a badly swollen finger, and Street's heel is still bothering him. Kahoe did great work, and his coaching had a lot to do with Gray's effectiveness. Besides this, Kahoe's grounder to Moriarty, as described in the foregoing, virtually won the game. George Browne is suffering from a bruised foot, the result of an accident in Monday's game with St. Louis, and was in no shape to play. He will likely get into the game to-day.

NOTES OF THE GAME.
Great.
Keep it up.
Delehanty a Tiger now!
Where's that pepper, Jennings?
Better make it two straight.
Welcome to our city, Schaefer.
Sam Crawford failed to get a hit.
Milan is playing great ball these days.
Don't forget that future games start promptly at 4 o'clock.
Wild Conroy's work at third was one of the many features of the game.

Walter Johnson is slated to pitch to-day at George Mullin will likely be Jennings' choice.
Won't it look funny to see Delehanty in a Detroit uniform? Wonder if Jennings will give him Schaefer's.

Ty Cobb stretched a single into a two bagger in the fifth. You've got to watch this boy every minute.
Mike Kahoe is a mighty handy man to have around. The veteran did every bit as well yesterday as Blankenship could have done.

Mrs. Robert Unglaub and Sir Robert's two pretty little daughters were interested spectators in one of the grand stand stunts.
Ty jumped in front of Killifer in the sixth and pulled down Lovell's fly. It had muffed the ball, the whole effect would have been lost.
In the eighth a foul fly was just touched by Wild Conroy, going up against the third-base covered stands, the ball bounding into one of the spectator's pockets.

Matty McIntyre is out of the game for a few days, owing to a bruised thumb on his throwing hand. While at the bat against Plank, of the Athletics, Tuesday, an in shoot landed on Matty's thumb.
Lelievre brought the crowd to its feet in the fifth by capturing Crawford's fly with one hand after a hard run. Cobb was on second at the time and made a dash for home. The ball was quickly returned to second and Umpire Egan ruled Ty out for leaving the bag before the catch.

Highlanders Win from White Sox by Eighth-Inning Rally.
New York, Aug. 11.—With a brace of clean hits, which came at a time when the fans had given up hope, the Highlanders scored two runs in the eighth inning and beat the Chicago White Sox to-day. These runs were just enough to land the victory, as up to that point the Sox had the score 1 to 0 in their favor. Doyle pitched a fine game for the New Yorks, striking out nine men. Score:

Glendale Proves Weak at Bat and Loses Out, 9 to 6.
Upper Marlboro, Md., Aug. 11.—The baseball teams from Oxon Hill and Glendale played a fine game here to-day, the former club winning out by the score of 9 to 6. The contest was witnessed by a large crowd, many preferring the ball game to the races.

For Oxon Hill the Rusk brothers were in the points. Glendale connecting for but seven hits.
Lancaster pitched for the losers. Fisher, for the winners, played fine ball at shortstop. Oxon Hill has won fifteen out of seventeen games played this year. Mr. Herney G. Machen, of Hyattsville, went a mile in his Ford machine in 1:56. He was accompanied by Sheriff Frank P. Hurd.

Manager Fred Lake would like to get Smith, and a deal with the Boston Club is not unlikely, as many are of the opinion that Smith is too good a man to be relegated to the minors.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—The only run in to-day's game with Boston was made in the second inning by the Pirates, when Richie passed Cantillon to first with the bases full, forcing Abby over the plate. The home team could get but four hits off the Boston twirler, but fielded perfectly, and the Red Sox made three errors.

Reamont made two singles and a sacrifice hit, figured in a double play, and handed two put-outs, his work being one of the features of the contest, which proved to be one of the shortest played here this season. Score:

"Giants" Trim St. Louis Nationals, Making Nineteen Runs in Game.
St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 11.—The Giants completed the humiliation of Brasnahan and his deputies this afternoon, not only by making it five straight victories, but by submerging them under a flood of nineteen runs.

Roger was spared witnessing the overwhelming defeat of his youngsters, having been immolated on the altar of a kick early in the game and sent off the field. It wasn't long before the contest became a roaring baroque, the culmination of the rout coming in the sixth inning, when fifteen of the Giants went to the bat, ten of them scoring.

Hyattsville, Md., Aug. 11.—Hyattsville and Langdon met here to-day in the last scheduled game of the season in the Prince George County League, the victory going to the home team to the tune of 6 to 1.

Lash pitched a fine game for Hyattsville, and incidentally received swell support. Langdon had three men on bases in the fourth, with one man down, and Lash allowed only one run to come over. E. Porter, for Langdon, was ineffective and was relieved by McMahon.

Darnall, lead of Cumberland, was behind the bat for Hyattsville, and none of the visitors was willing to take chances on his throwing arm. Hyattsville has six postponed games, but nothing definite has been arranged as to when they will be played off. Score:

PRINTERS OFF FOR CHICAGO.
Baseball Club Composed of Members of Columbia Union, No. 101.
Columbia 101 baseball club leaves this evening at 7 p. m. for Chicago, where they will participate in the second annual tournament of the Union Printers' National Baseball League. After five days' play in Chicago, a stop-over at Pittsburg for a game with the printers' club of that city will wind up a ten-day tour that will long be remembered by those who are fortunate enough to go.

Chicago Typographical union has made elaborate preparations to entertain the seven visiting clubs and rosters, which should make the 1909 tournament a credit to all printermen.

A handsome testimonial will be given to Charles Comiskey, of the White Sox, on whose grounds the ball games will be played. The club will have its own car from here to Chicago, and so far the party consists of twenty-eight, including the following:

SCHAERER AND KILLIFER
TRADED FOR DELEHANTY

Deal Closed Yesterday Afternoon and Both Second Basemen Will Play Against Former Team-mates To-day.

Second Baseman Jim Delehanty, of the Washington club, will cover the midway station for the Detroit Tigers here to-day, while former Second Baseman "Germany" Schaefer, of the champions, will hold down the same job for Washington.

The deal was closed by Manager Jennings and President Noyes at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Washington not only gets Schaefer for Delehanty, but Outfielder Killifer to boot.

The Washington Herald stated exclusively last Sunday that Delehanty would figure in a trade with Detroit, and that when the Tigers left town Delehanty would accompany them; so the news that the trade has been consummated is not so startling as might be expected, as the fans were in a measure prepared.

With Killifer and Schaefer, Manager Cantillon has all the best of the bargain, and even Hughey Jennings admits it, but declares that something had to be done to bolster up his club, if another pennant would be won, and Delehanty is the man he wants.

Tigers Are Heartbroken.
The Detroit players are heartbroken at losing Schaefer. Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford, and Bill Donovan expressed themselves strongly on the subject. Donovan said: "I don't want to see our club lose, but if I pitch in one of the games here I hope Schaefer gets five hits out of many times up." Cobb declares that Schaefer is not only the best fellow in the world, but also as good an infielder as there is in the American League.

Schaefer said last night: "It's pretty tough to leave a championship club for a tailender, and were it not for the fact that Joe Cantillon is a warm friend of mine and that my being here would help his team, you can bet I'd be missing just about this time."

"I intend to give the Washington fans my very best services, and will work just as hard for Cantillon as I have done for Jennings. I feel sure that the Nationals will finish a lot better than many of the wise ones predict."

Delehanty is delighted with the transfer. "Why shouldn't I be?" he exclaimed. "I have been roasted to a wispier by the bleacher fans here. If I could hit the ball they called me everything on the calendar; even if I happened to pull off a good play I never got credit for it. With Detroit I hope things will break better. Hughey Jennings and I are old pals, and I am going to work my best off for him."

Killifer, the other player figuring in the trade, is a youngster of considerable ability. In yesterday's game he pulled down two hits, and Hughey Jennings says that he is one of the most promising youngsters he has had in tow for some time.

Killifer last year was farmed out by Detroit to the Kalamazoo club of the Michigan League. He was up among the leading hitters. He can play the outfield or infield, and is fast on the bases.

Hughey Jennings in discussing the deal made it plain that a man of Delehanty's caliber was absolutely necessary at this stage of the game. "Our team must get out of this rut," he said, "and Delehanty can help us a whole lot. He is an aggressive player and a natural hitter. I had to give up two crackers for him, but think he will prove that he is worth the sacrifice before the season closes."

Manager Cantillon paid Delehanty a high compliment. He said he had been to part with Del, but believed the exchange would be the best thing in the world for Washington, as Delehanty, for obvious reasons, was not putting up the best ball of white he is capable of. Cantillon explains this in part as follows: "Del, when he started with us, went after everything that came his way, and if he happened to boot a hard chance after trying his best, the crowd instead of applauding, roared him. After a while he did not try so hard for those difficult chances, and I don't know as I blame him much. His heart was not in his work, while at home. On the trips away he played much better ball."

Play Against Former Team-Mates.
It was understood shortly after the deal had been closed yesterday afternoon that the men would not be played in their new berths during the present series, but after thinking the matter over both Managers Jennings and Cantillon decided that an everybody knew of the trade, it might be just as well to stop criticism. This would also tend to stop criticism in the other American League cities in case Delehanty was unfortunate enough to make an error likely to have a ripple on Washington and Philadelphia at present in view of the red-hot fight for the pennant.

WIND UP SEASON.
Brentwood Wins Championship in Prince George County League.
Brentwood, Md., Aug. 11.—To-day was the wind-up of the scheduled games in the Prince George County League, Brentwood coming out on top. The new champions met Riverdale here to-day and the visitors went down in defeat, the score being 6 to 2. It was a pitchers' battle between Plozet for Riverdale and Fentress for Brentwood, Fentress getting slightly the better of the argument.

Riverdale put up a weird fielding game, Plozet and Fanning both making wild heaves in the same inning, allowing two runs to come in. Maloney pulled off a double play at second unassisted. Score:

Chicago Typographical union has made elaborate preparations to entertain the seven visiting clubs and rosters, which should make the 1909 tournament a credit to all printermen.

A handsome testimonial will be given to Charles Comiskey, of the White Sox, on whose grounds the ball games will be played. The club will have its own car from here to Chicago, and so far the party consists of twenty-eight, including the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Lerch, Miss Reynolds, J. W. Reynolds, T. M. Ring and son, William Williams and son, James T. Elliott, C. J. Anderson, Samuel C. Hinwood, Ben Wood, A. M. Julian, Joe Quinn, Frank S. Lerch, Tony Smeets, George G. Selbold, C. P. Johnson, R. B. Wilhide, Walter Ball, David McCarthy, T. D. McCarthy, James Warren, P. C. Hilton, and W. E. Shields, Jr.
